

Continuing Education as condition for maintaining licensure, for Attorneys, Accountants and IRS Enrolled Agents in the United States

Central Asian Tax Research Center (CATRC) is pleased to announce that Vincent L. Teahan is delivering presentation dedicated to relevance of Continuing Education for Attorneys, Accountants and Tax Professionals.

On February 20, 2014 Mr. Vincent L. Teahan is going to speak about: "Continuing Education Requirements, courses and media available, and reporting requirements, as condition for maintaining licensure, for Attorneys, Accountants and IRS Enrolled Agents in the United States."

The educational process, does not stop in the classroom of the Bachelor or Master's degree. For most professions, which require professional qualification, the education also continues and is even obligatory after graduation.

Date: Thursday 20, February
Time: 16:30
Place: KIMEP University,
New Bld, hall #1

Vincent L. Teahan has come to KIMEP as a Senior Lawyer Professor through the auspices of the Center for International Legal Studies in Salzburg, Austria. Teahan is a member of the law firm of Teahan & Constantino, LLP in Millbrook and Poughkeepsie, New York (about 150 KM North of New York City). Earlier in his career, he practiced with large law firms in New York City. "He is a graduate of Yale College (1971) and Yale Law School. Besides being author of a number of articles on tax and estate planning, he has served on the editorial board of the American Lawyer/Court TV "Legal Survival Guide."